

Disclaimer:

As a condition to the use of this document and the information contained herein, the Facial Identification Scientific Working Group (FISWG) requests notification by e-mail before or contemporaneously to the introduction of this document, or any portion thereof, as a marked exhibit offered for or moved into evidence in any judicial, administrative, legislative, or adjudicatory hearing or other proceeding (including discovery proceedings) in the United States or any foreign country. Such notification shall include: 1) the formal name of the proceeding, including docket number or similar identifier; 2) the name and location of the body conducting the hearing or proceeding; and 3) the name, mailing address (if available) and contact information of the party offering or moving the document into evidence. Subsequent to the use of this document in a formal proceeding, it is requested that FISWG be notified as to its use and the outcome of the proceeding. Notifications should be sent to: fiswg@fiswg.org

Redistribution Policy:

FISWG grants permission for redistribution and use of all publicly posted documents created by FISWG, provided that the following conditions are met:

Redistributions of documents, or parts of documents, must retain the FISWG cover page containing the disclaimer.

Neither the name of FISWG, nor the names of its contributors, may be used to endorse or promote products derived from its documents.

Any reference or quote from a FISWG document must include the version number (or creation date) of the document and mention if the document is in a draft status.

Facial Identification Practitioner Code of Ethics

Approved by FISWG on June 18, 2009

1. Practitioners shall cooperate with other professionals in the Facial Identification and Facial Recognition community to promote advancement through scientific research. Knowledge of any new discoveries, developments or techniques applicable to the forensic sciences shall be shared with the peer community;
 2. Expertise is based on training, study, experience, judgment, and demonstrated competency. Practitioners shall not misrepresent their qualifications;
 3. Practitioners shall not undertake examinations or give testimony in areas in which they are not qualified;
 4. Practitioners shall perform examinations utilizing accepted techniques and methods which are reliable and accurate with accepted standards and controls;
 5. Conclusions shall not be knowingly misrepresented;
 6. Practitioners shall render unbiased testimony and endeavor to promote the understanding of their examinations and findings in an impartial manner;
 7. Practitioners shall keep all privileged communications confidential;
 8. Practitioners in violation of this Code of Ethics shall be reported to the proper authorities.
- * These guidelines are not intended to supercede or supplant any other Code(s) of Ethics.